Reasons to Love Cardiff

The capital is our campus

Cardiff University is at the heart of a thriving and growing capital city.

“The official capital of Wales only since 1955, the buoyant city of Cardiff (Caerdydd) has, since the turn of the millennium, witnessed a remarkable evolution from a large town to a truly international city, with massive developments in the centre as well as on the rejuvenated waterfront. With a reputation as a party town, allied to lots of top-class sport and a cultural attractions, it is one of the UK’s most enticing destinations.”

to love
Cardiff

Our students fall in love with Cardiff.
So, what makes the Welsh capital so appealing?

02

World-leading research

Cardiff is in the top tier of Britain's research universities and is a member of the prestigious Russell Group. It's ranked second nationally for research impact, and in the top five universities for research excellence in the UK.

We've been awarded seven Queen's Anniversary Prizes (which recognise world-class excellence in UK Higher Education) and are home to a huge cohort of distinguished staff, including two Nobel Prize winners and 13 Royal Society Fellows.

Our star alumni

From politicians and journalists to scientists and innovators – many well-known faces have been through Cardiff's corridors. Our alumni include BBC broadcasters Huw Edwards, Jason Mohammad and Susanna Reid, former National Poet of Wales Gillian Clarke, Money Saving Expert founder and journalist Martin Lewis OBE, academic, writer and broadcaster Professor Alice Roberts and many more. Our Honorary Fellows include the likes of Sir Patrick Stewart, Stephen Fry and Carol Vorderman.

04

Top teaching and employability

Stepping into a university that provides innovative, exciting teaching across the disciplines, it's hard not to feel the buzz. A Cardiff education is unique and personable; students are taught and mentored by committed and enthusiastic tutors and lecturers, many of whom are world-leading experts. Our graduates are amongst the most sought after by employers.

05

Bute Park

A 130 acre back garden

Bute Park lies in the heart of Cardiff behind King Edward VII Avenue. With the River Taff flowing alongside, it is the perfect mixture of tranquillity and wide open space, ideal for relaxing (or running) on a summer's afternoon.

06

One big film set!

The proximity and unique architecture of the University campuses make it a prime filming location.

Cardiff is home to many TV shows, including dramas such as 'Casualty' and 'Doctor Who'.

Reasons to Love Cardiff

On the doorstep to wild Wales

A wealth of treasures lie just beyond Cardiff's borders, a unique part of the world asking to be explored. A trip to Barry Island is a must, a destination for 'Gavin and Stacey' fans and beachgoers alike. The rugged Brecon Beacons offer incredible walks, views and outdoor pursuits.

08

International days

Rugby is part of the lifeblood of Cardiff; you can't miss it.

A festival atmosphere descends during the annual Six Nations tournament, as Wales' visiting rivals take them on in their home town. The city also hosts international football and cricket matches.

09

Community Action

Student volunteering is a way of life with many student-led projects serving the community. Further afield, the Phoenix Project is making a difference in Africa, working with the University of Namibia to embed quality education in focused projects, enabling better health and less poverty.

One of the best Students' Unions in the UK

It's official – according to What Uni Student Choice Awards 2020, Cardiff is ranked third best the UK. Home to over 240 sports clubs and student societies, a free employment service and, of course, the beloved Taf pub, the Students' Union caters for every student's needs across the board, from studying to socialising.

11

Rich culture and history

From the internationally renowned Wales Millennium Centre on the waterfront, to the National Museum in Cathays Park and the 2,000-year-old Cardiff Castle, Cardiff is a city steeped in heritage and culture.

A city that loves running

Many elite athletes, including the likes of Mo Farah, compete in world-class events in Cardiff. The City boasts plenty of events for runners of all levels – from weekly Parkruns to the Cardiff Half Marathon, the second largest race of its type in the UK. Many of our students join #TeamCardiff for this, where they also raise vital funds that support our research. Other students give their time to volunteer and our physio students are on hand to give much welcomed sports massage at the end of the 13.1 mile course!

“For me, studying at Heath Park, Cartwright Court is the ideal location and there are other healthcare students so it’s a great community. It’s very social but also quiet, and the kitchen is great for socialising in. Beware, you can spend all night in there talking with housemates. Residence Life are great, my house loves the free food events the best.”

The University makes every effort to check the accuracy of the information in this guide at the time of going to press. However, inevitably changes do take place from time to time. You should not therefore rely solely on this guide and should visit the website www.cardiff.ac.uk/residences for latest information.

This guide is also available in Welsh

This brochure can also be made available in large print (text), Braille and on audio tape/CD. To request an alternative format please contact the Residences Office.
